

Conversation Starter for Agreed to Divorce

Questions to help guide you through what you and your spouse need to discuss before filing for divorce

Children

1. Are there children? If so, what rights do each of you wish to have to make decisions on their behalf?
2. Where should the children live?
3. Should the residence of the children be restricted to a specific county or state?
4. What does possession of the children look like?
5. Will one party have the children more than the other?
6. Are there specific holidays/vacations that you want to make sure are part of the order?

Support

7. Is there medical insurance for the children?
8. Is it government insurance, insurance through a parent's employer, or other?
9. Will that spouse continue to carry that insurance?
10. Will one spouse provide the other with child support?
11. What assets do the parties own together?

Assets

12. Is there an agreement as to how to divide you assets?
13. Is there a martial home?
14. If so, what will happen to the home?
15. Will the home be sold?
16. Will one spouse get the house?
17. If the home will be sold, what is the timeline for this and what other details need to be discussed?

Debts

18. Are there debts that the parties have accumulated?
19. Are there any credit cards?
20. Are there open loans for cars or properties?
21. What are those debts and how will the parties split these?